Praise Your Way Out

"About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the other prisoners were listening to them. Suddenly there was such a violent earthquake that the foundations of the prison were shaken. At once all the prison doors flew open, and everybody's chains came loose." - Acts 16:25-26 (NIV)

Isn't it amazing how a bad attitude can make everyone on a team miserable or a good attitude can motivate others to push a little further until a job is done? Living by faith, depending on support, waiting on God's timing – all of these things can sometimes make life a little unnerving, but we've heard several times lately that the best way to get through it is to praise our way out of it. Even while in prison Paul and Silas were praying and singing, despite the despair of their situation! It's such a great reminder to us that God has a plan in store for us and for you, but the best part is that we don't need to worry at all because whatever place we find ourselves in, he knows exactly when and how the doors will open and the chains will be loosed!

We are praising our way through this time of itineration! We are praying for a September 1st departure. That's only four weeks away – or less when this hits your mailbox – but we still trust a miracle will take place and whether or not that happens in our expected timing, we will keep our hopes high and praise God because He is faithful! In July we sold our furniture, moved out of our apartment, stored our shipment and packed our suitcases with what we'll need until we arrive in Colombia. We are ready to go! We are fully prepared to leave with a 24 hour notice, but before we can go we need new monthly supporters – 60 new supporters at $60/month. Please agree with us in prayer that God will supply those supporters and get us to the field in just a few weeks!

One of Medellín's most famous citizens is Fernando Botero, a painter and sculptor known worldwide for his artwork of obese figures.

The Museo de Antioquia in Medellín showcases much of Botero's work both inside and outside. Tickets to view Botero's work and other artists are only (about) $4 for adults and $2 for students.

Prayer Requests

- Direction as a new school year is upon us and we wait to see where the kids will be enrolling.
- New supporters and prayer partners to help us get to the field.

Around Home

Corey, Alex and Tona all added a number to their ages over the last few months. Thank you everyone who sent cards and birthday wishes! We enjoyed a beautiful weekend with Corey's extended family for their annual family reunion. Alex and Maggie are getting ready to begin two weeks of the Junior Apprentice program at Mount Hope Church in Grand Blanc, MI where they will spend two weeks in intense discipleship, discipline and spiritual growth exercises – from push-ups to camping to service projects and running a church service, the two weeks they commit should deliver them 100 percent ready to return to the mission field on fire for God!

We need 60 new supporters
