

THE KAUTZ FAMILY ~ MISSIONARIES TO COLOMBIA

MARCH UPDATE 2013

Children from our youngest class. The little girl at the top is four years old and has memorized over 40 Bible verses!

There is a movement taking place. I am so in awe of God's timing. We came to Colombia with a hope to inspire and train churches, pastors and leaders to reach out to children. Along with workshops, we lead by example, working in a local church and showing how children's ministry can change a community.

What we have found is that God was not only whispering to our hearts, but stirring the hearts of the church all across the country to look to the smallest citizens. This year has had a phenomenal start with national leaders in the Assemblies of God putting an emphasis on children's ministry. We're working now on the first ever children's leader's summit in our district. We're also working to spread a program created by fellow missionaries to train leaders how to teach children about missions. In all of that planning, we are amazed at the urgency in so many hearts at exactly the same moment to start a movement to shift the culture, to value and teach the youngest members of the congregation.

Enjoying a hot dog at a party we threw for the kids in the church.

Thank you for being part of this movement with us. Your prayers and financial support are what make it possible for us to be here at this precise moment in time, to witness and take part in such an exciting expansion of the gospel here in Colombia.

This is our local team of teachers in a workshop to teach new teachers and add to what they've already learned.

Alex teaching a memory verse.

The national team leadership for children's missions education.

Stadiums across the country were near capacity for an outreach for children—evangelism mixed with soccer.

Planning children's ministry with district leaders.